

Course of
COMPARATIVE LAW
Professor Tania Groppi

24 May 2021, 2 p.m. GMT +2

Guest speaker

GENDER EQUALITY IN JAPAN

Akiko Ejima
Professor of Law
Meiji University, Tokyo

Akiko Ejima is a Professor at School of Law, Meiji University (Tokyo). She has been a visiting scholar at King's College London and the Institute for Advanced Legal Studies (London), Harvard Law School, Faculty of Law and Hughes Hall (Cambridge) and Wolfson College (Oxford). She is presently the President of the International Human Rights Law Association (Japan). She writes and teaches in the field of constitutional law, comparative constitutional law, and international human rights law. Her present research interests focus on establishing a theory to establish a pluralistic, circulatory, non-hierarchical system to protect human rights by combining constitutional law and international law.

To participate at the event, please send an e-mail to dipec@unisi.it